Old business

Larry reported that the application for a table at Gold Rush Days had been turned in. He will keep an eye out for the 4th of July parade applications. A suggestion was made that the “owners” of cars might contribute to the cost of installing new sprockets, but it isn’t clear that new sprockets are needed if the right belts are installed. John Barnett will see that the batteries are recharged. Members were reminded about the Little Norway parade and the Alaska Day parade in Sitka. Craig said the Alaska Airlines fares to Sitka were $96 each way.

New business – none
